

Apprenticeship opportunities

We recruit individuals of all backgrounds who aspire to work in a construction consultancy environment.

Currie & Brown is one of the world's leading physical assets management consultancies. We add value to the construction, management and use of physical assets the world over.

We work with some of the world's most prestigious clients, overseeing the construction of iconic buildings, transportation infrastructure, retail and leisure facilities, and much more.

Our values

People

We care for our people through a challenging and supportive working environment.

Sustainability

We care about the effect we have on the environment.

Clients

We treat clients the way we would want to be treated.

Excellence

We strive for excellence.

What career could I have?

Quantity surveyors are construction industry professionals with expert knowledge on construction costs and contracts. Qualified professional quantity surveyors are known as chartered surveyors. After your apprenticeship and a period of structured learning, not only will you have a recognised degree, paid for by Currie & Brown, but you will also have an industry-recognised chartership.

Why Currie & Brown?

An established apprenticeship programme creating our leaders of the future

The chance to work on iconic projects

The chance to work, study and socialise with a cohort of like-minded apprentices

Huge investment in personal development and one-to-one coaching

Mentorship programmes available for all apprentices

Long-term development – we provide a pathway not just to the apprenticeship, but to chartership and beyond

A focus on social value and sustainability – with paid time off to support community-based and charity activities

Opportunities to work with clients representing some of the world's most recognised brands

A global business providing worldwide job opportunities when you become chartered!

What are the rewards?

Early finish Fridays

£400 a year towards a gym or sports club membership

Full funding to degree costs

An interest-free season ticket loan for travel

Private medical coverage

25 days' holiday a year, with the chance to 'buy' more!

Company pension scheme
